My Letter to You

I am so excited to know that you have made not only the best decision for yourself but for your eternity. You have given Jesus your death, and He has given you life. Romans 6:23 reminds us that eternal life is God's gift through Jesus Christ.

When I first wrote this book in 2019, I wanted every Muslim who received Jesus Christ to have a guide they could keep and read. Some could not attend a church, but they could keep the PDF and continue learning about their new life. Later, we expanded its distribution to everyone who made a decision for Christ, as a guide to help them grow and find Christian fellowship.

Our journey of evangelism started with one believer, and the number kept growing by the grace of God. As of October 2026, our ministry has witnessed more than 400,000 people make decisions for Christ, and we are trusting God to reach one million. To me, these are not merely numbers. They are people whose lives matter to God.

Romans 10:9–11 teaches that we confess Jesus as Lord, believe in our hearts that God raised Him from the dead, and receive salvation through faith in Him.

Regardless of how long we live here on earth, we have an eternity that is incomparable to anything you will ever experience here. Methuselah lived 969 years according to Genesis 5:27, yet even that long earthly life reminds us how important eternity is.

The life you have received in Christ reconciles you to God. What does it mean to reconcile? To reconcile means to restore a relationship. Sin separates us from God, but through Jesus Christ we are reconciled to Him. By receiving Christ, you are welcomed into God's family. Guess what? God is now your Abba Father! You have a new heritage! A new lineage! A new inheritance in Christ that will shape how you live here on earth. Jeremiah 29:11 reminds us of God's purposes and hope.

Perhaps you received Christ many years ago but still have questions about your identity in Him. This book is also for you. Return to these foundations, grow in the Word, and continue walking with Jesus.

If you cannot attend a church, whether because of distance, family circumstances, personal safety, or other barriers, do not think you have been forgotten. You can begin reading Scripture and praying where you are. Later in this book, I have included practical steps for growing in faith when regular church attendance is not possible.

As you read this book, may you discover yourself!

Love,

Chapter 1: My Decision: Welcome to Life!

When we read the Acts of the Apostles, we see men and women who were like you and me, who, after receiving Christ, did great and mighty works in their time. They were trailblazers; they shifted nations; they changed the dynamics of their world; they preached Christ without fear or favor; they made God known to all and sundry!

You have now moved from the common life. From the bland salad life. From a life where you were at the mercy of the world and a target of the kingdom of darkness to a life of power and authority in Christ. Jesus gave His disciples authority over the enemy's power (Luke 10:19 – 20: 19 Behold, I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.”). This does not mean that believers will never face hardship; it means the enemy does not have the final word in your life.

Repentance means turning from sin and turning toward God. When you receive Christ, you begin a new direction in life. You are not saved by your own good works, but the grace you have received calls you to live differently (Ephesians 2:8–10 8 For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, 9 not a result of works, so that no one may boast. 10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.).

Through Jesus Christ you have now become a partaker of the divine nature, which is the nature of our Abba Father, the Almighty God. This is the good news in your New Life! When you give your life to Jesus, a new LIFE enters your spirit! Your old spirit man who carried a sinful nature has now been replaced with the nature of Christ. You are a new creation! You never existed before! You are here in your newness to fulfill a divine purpose.

2 Peter 1:3–4 teaches that God's divine power has given us what we need for life and godliness through knowing Him. Through His promises we become partakers of the divine nature and escape the corruption of sinful desire.

When you get born again, you are no longer the person you were before! You now share in the divine nature through Christ. That is what the Bible teaches! In 2 Corinthians 5:17, you are not what you were before. You are now in Christ. The Bible doesn't say that you WILL become a new creation; this is not something that will happen in the future! It says that YOU ARE A NEW CREATION. Praise God! This is the gospel that I have preached, I preach, and will continue to preach. You have received new life in Christ, and you can stand firm in Him as you fulfill your glorious destiny!

Your position in Christ has changed. Ephesians 2:6 describes believers as raised up with Christ and seated with Him in the heavenly places.

You have eternal life in the Son of God (1 John 5:11).

You are a child of God! John 1:12 declares that those who receive Christ and believe in His name are given the right to become children of God.

Chapter 2: My New Life: It's a Requirement

John 3: 1 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. 2 This man came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from God; for no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him."

3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

4 Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

5 Jesus answered, "Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.' 8 The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

Having read this passage, we see that the new birth, salvation, or being born again is not an idea invented by people. Jesus Himself says, "You must be born again."

Nicodemus first understood birth only in physical terms. Jesus showed him that entering the kingdom of God requires a new birth by the Spirit. Through Christ, we are brought out of darkness and into the kingdom of God's beloved Son (Colossians 1:13–14).

We also learn that our physical bodies are temporary, while our relationship with God reaches beyond this life. We should not spend all our attention on outward appearances and neglect the spiritual life that Christ has given us.

Chapter 3: A New Creation: Old Things Have Passed Away!

What a wonderful life you have received! You are a new creation, and guess where you are? In Christ! Glory to Jesus!

The old you (the sinful nature) has gone away, and the new you (divine nature) is manifested! You are no longer a slave of sin, Hallelujah! You are now a free person, free to become all that God called you to be.
CONGRATULATIONS!

Your spiritual location is now in Christ, and everything you receive from Him is an inheritance of grace and love. You do not face the forces of darkness alone. Stand in the authority of Jesus Christ and grow in the knowledge of His Word!

You are now a King and a Priest to God! Praise God! Revelation 1:5-6: 5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler over the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, 6 and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

2 Corinthians 5:17 Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.

You now need to let go of your past. Your past doesn't define you at all; it is all under the blood of Christ! However, you have a responsibility to reconcile with the people you offended; if you owe anyone, pay what you owe. If you don't have the money, pay it in installments. Make everything right and live right.

Your new life is a beginning, not the end of learning. If you make a mistake, do not run away from God. Confess your sin, turn back to Him, and receive His forgiveness (1 John 1:9). Jesus is our Advocate with the Father (1 John 2:1). Keep growing!

Chapter 4: A Life of Love: It's a Love Thing!

Welcome to the world in which love reigns supreme. I have always said that "IT'S A LOVE THING"; this new life started with love, and it only works through love. Without love the new life becomes a mirage.

This LOVE is in three levels: love for God, love for self, and love for your neighbor!

The reason we have a new life is love: John 3:16: For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. God's love for us gave us new life. The best way to receive this love is by loving Him back. How? Matthew 22:37 Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind." 38 This is the first and great commandment. Do you want to fulfill God's commandments? It is time to love Him with all that we are and to make Him our first and most important priority. The decisions you make in life should display your love for God!

We live in a world where it is easy to love others, at the expense of ourselves. Jesus puts this in perspective and makes it measurable. He tells us that the way to love your neighbor is to love them in equal measure as you love yourself. Now that God has forgiven you, it is time for you to forgive yourself for the things that bring guilt and condemnation to you. Since God has forgiven you, you have no reason to hold back from forgiving yourself. Let the past go and receive a new life!

After you love yourself, it is important to love your neighbor. This new life calls for you to love everyone around you. Your love for them is not based on their actions or reciprocation for your love, but on the fact that you are born of love. Matthew 22: 39 And the second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' 40 On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets." Once you love God, self, and neighbor, you fulfill the first and great commandment, and the law and the prophets!

People will know that you are followers of Christ when you love one another. Jesus says in John 13:35, "By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

You are called to unconditional love! Jesus called us to a higher dimension of love, not the worldly/carnal love that is fickle and conditional. He calls us to unconditional love, where we love others just as he loves us. Our love for others is not based on them, but on our Christ-given instruction. John 15:12: This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

Loving others does not mean approving what is wrong or remaining in an unsafe situation. You can forgive someone and still maintain wise boundaries. Ask the Holy Spirit to teach you how to love with truth and wisdom.

Love for God shapes our conduct. Faith gives us courage to obey His Word. That is why our next chapter looks at faith and action.

Chapter 5: Faith and Action: Nothing Limits You

There are various definitions of Faith, but I choose to give you the one that makes the most sense to me. “Faith is accepting what God has said, and seeing the outcome in your spirit, as you await its physical manifestation.”

Welcome to a life of faith. Your new life starts by faith and you live it by faith. Our Lord and Savior gave us a key to this new life; believe! When you believe, you have access to what the world is trying to attain. Mark 9:23 Jesus said to him, “If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.”

Do you want to please God? You achieve it by having faith in Him. Hebrews 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him

Since you now have faith, allow your faith to direct your actions. Your faith directs what you say and what you do.

James 2:26 teaches that faith without works is dead, just as the body without the spirit is dead. Faith calls for corresponding action. If you believe God’s Word about forgiveness, take a step toward reconciliation. If you believe He has called you to serve, begin by serving faithfully where you are.

You have lived a life of walking by sight. Our world says, “Seeing is believing.” Welcome to your new life, where you trust what God says about you, remain confident in His Word, and put your faith into action.

Faith is not simply what you say you believe. It is also seen in the steps you take in obedience to God. Keep trusting Him and keep moving forward!

Chapter 6: The Holy Spirit: Our Eternal Guide

You are never alone, nor are you an orphan. You have the Holy Spirit. Jesus promised to send another Helper who would be with His disciples forever (John 14:15–17).

The Holy Spirit comforts you, teaches you, guides you, bears witness about Christ, and empowers you to be a witness of Christ. You can depend on His help as you grow in your new life.

God has given us an eternal Helper, the Holy Spirit. He sees what you do not see. His presence does not mean you will never experience difficulties or make mistakes. Rather, He teaches, corrects, and strengthens you to remain faithful to God's calling.

Jesus promised that the Helper would abide with His people forever (John 14:16).

Let the Spirit of God lead you. We live in a world with many voices, philosophies, theories, and traditions. As believers, we must learn to discern His leading through prayer, Scripture, and obedience to Christ. The Holy Spirit also bears witness that we belong to God (Romans 8:14–16). His leading will not contradict the Word of God.

The Holy Spirit also convicts the world concerning sin, righteousness, and judgment (John 16:7–8). His conviction calls us to respond to God's truth, rather than to hide in condemnation. When you recognize that you have sinned, turn to God in repentance and receive His forgiveness. He continues to work in you as you grow.

As you learn to walk in the Spirit, notice the fruit He produces in your life: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Galatians 5:22–23).

Chapter 7: Your New Identity: Who Am I?

Who am I now that I belong to Christ? Your past and your circumstances do not have the final word about your identity. The following Scriptures show what God says about you. Your identity in Christ is received by faith, while your character matures as you follow Him.

1. Romans 8:29 For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters.

God's plan is that you become more like His Son, Jesus Christ. Your identity begins with belonging to Him, and your character develops as you follow Him.

2. Matthew 5:48 Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect. We are called to a process of growth that allows us to mature in our new life. This growth process calls for discipline, transformation through the word, prayer, fasting, worship and joining the assembly of saints.

3. Psalm 139:13-14 For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

God created you wonderfully. Accept yourself and celebrate the person God created you to be. Do not reject yourself! You are valuable now and in eternity!

4. Ephesians 2:10 For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

God created you in Christ to do good works! God did not create to waste time, but to fulfil a glorious destiny. You are eternally important!

5. Romans 12:4-5 Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.

You now belong to the global body of Christ. As a member of His body, you have a unique role to play. When you are able to join a local congregation, look for ways to learn and serve. If you cannot attend, you can still pray, study Scripture, and encourage others as opportunities arise.

6. Ephesians 3:19 And to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. God wants you to experience His fulness!

You are not walking this journey alone. Join other believers in worship, prayer, learning, and service. God has given each member of His body a place and a purpose.

Chapter 8: Next Steps: Baptism

Baptism is a foundational and important requirement once you are born again. How do you get baptized? The way our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ was baptized by John. I come from a Presbyterian background, and I was baptized in church as a baby. But once I was born again and received the revelation of baptism by immersion, I was baptized by immersion.

It is important to be led by the word of God, not by conventional wisdom or routines we grew accustomed to, and that became the norm. Baptism should change your life; it is not a ritual or a nice idea; it is a life-changing moment.

Jesus asked John to baptize Him, and He said, “Permit it to be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness” (Matthew 3:15).

Matthew 3:13–17 describes Jesus coming to John at the Jordan for baptism. John initially hesitated, but Jesus instructed him to proceed. When Jesus came up from the water, the Spirit of God descended upon Him.

Jesus speaks of being born of water and the Spirit in John 3:5. Christians understand the relationship between this passage, salvation, and baptism in different ways. In this book, I teach baptism by immersion as an important response of obedience after receiving Christ.

Mark 16:16 links belief and baptism. The call to believe in Jesus Christ is central to the Gospel, and baptism is an important expression of obedience. See also Acts 2:38.

The disciples continued to call new believers to repentance and baptism. Peter proclaimed this in Acts 2:38. Baptism is a public declaration of faith in Jesus Christ, and Romans 6:3–4 helps us understand its meaning: identification with His death and resurrection.

If you cannot reach a local church safely, continue studying these passages and seek wise, trustworthy Christian guidance when it becomes possible. Do not expose yourself to danger merely to arrange a baptism.

Chapter 9: Next Steps: Your New Blueprint

We had a nursery school rhyme: “Read your Bible, pray every day…if you want to grow.” These simple words remind us that spiritual growth calls for regular attention to God’s Word and prayer.

When you buy equipment, you often receive a manual that helps you understand how it works. In a similar way, the Bible gives us God’s truth and teaches us how to live in our new life.

As you read the Word, you receive truth, and life comes in.

Take time to read the Bible and ask the Holy Spirit to reveal the Word of God to you! Begin with the Gospel of John and spend time thinking about what you read. Ask yourself: What does this passage teach me about Jesus? What does it teach me about my new life? What should I do in response?

A simple place to begin: read John chapters 1 through 7 over seven days, one chapter each day. Pray before you read, write down one truth you discover, and choose one way to practice it. Find a Bible-believing local church and someone mature in the faith who can help you grow.

How do you pray? Begin by speaking to God honestly. Thank Him for salvation, bring Him your needs, confess your sins, and ask Him to guide you. Jesus gave His disciples a pattern for prayer in Matthew 6:9–13. You can pray quietly wherever you are.

If you are unable to attend church, you can still follow the seven-day reading plan. Keep a notebook or use a private method that is safe for your circumstances. You do not have to share your questions or testimony publicly.

Chapter 10: Next Steps: Win Souls

Now that you have received the wonderful gift of salvation, it is your turn to share the Gospel!

The Bible says that he who wins souls is wise. Do you desire wisdom? Win souls!

Proverbs 11:30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life, and he who wins souls is wise.

Christ died and rose again so that we might be reconciled to God. Do you want to make God's priority your priority? Win souls! You can start with your own story: tell someone what Jesus has done for you, listen to their questions, and invite them to discover Him. Jesus commands His followers to make disciples of all nations (Matthew 28:19–20).

Your next steps are simple: continue in prayer, read the Word, seek baptism, join the fellowship of believers, and share the good news of Jesus Christ. This is your new dawn. Walk in your new life!

Remember: winning souls begins with loving people. Speak of Christ with gentleness and respect. Not every conversation will be easy, and you do not have to answer every question immediately.

Living Your New Life

A Guide When You Cannot Attend Church

You may live far from a church, have limited mobility, or be unable to attend because of family, community, or safety concerns. This guide was written with you in mind. Your relationship with Jesus does not begin and end at a church building.

Begin with what you can do today. Read a short passage of Scripture, pray about what you learn, and ask the Holy Spirit to help you obey God's Word. If you have access to the Bible, start with the Gospel of John. If you cannot read every day, begin again when you can.

You can pray wherever you are. God hears the prayers of His children. You do not need special words or a particular location. Give thanks, ask questions, confess sin, and bring your concerns to Him.

Fellowship matters, even when physical attendance is difficult. When it is safe and practical, connect with mature believers who respect your circumstances and can help you learn Scripture. A reliable teaching ministry or a private conversation may be a starting point, but take time to test teaching against the Bible.

If following Christ could place you at risk, exercise wisdom about your privacy. You are not required to publish your conversion, share your location, or participate in a public group. Be thoughtful about shared devices, downloaded files, and messages that others may be able to view. Do not take steps that threaten your safety.

As opportunities become available, seek Christian fellowship and baptism with trustworthy believers. Until then, keep growing in the knowledge of Jesus Christ. The Lord knows where you are.

A simple rhythm for each week

Read: spend time with a passage from the Bible.

Pray: speak to God about your day and the people around you.

Reflect: write or remember one truth you learned.

Act: practice that truth through love, honesty, service, or forgiveness.

Connect: seek trustworthy encouragement when it is safe to do so.

My prayer for you is that you will grow in Christ, stand firm in His Word, and discover the life He has given you. This is your new dawn!
